

Do you agree that Health related requirements are same for all the Adolescent boys and girls and adults:

We heard that, during menstruation period girls are not allowed to cook food, not to make any eatable preservatives like achar and even to worship god.

Boys do more labour and hard work than girls. Therefore boys required better food than girls..

Somebody told me that there is no relation with health and dietary habit. Is it true?.